

In regard to the proposal for broadcasters to record programming....It would be a tremendous hardship for small market broadcasters. This would require additional staff and with the economy soft as it is, it would be a tremendous burden. All stations should not be penalized for programming transgressions of a few.

Thanks for your consideration.